

K-Love serves me and thousands of others in my community every day. I know that KLove is in the best interest of the public because it promotes love and not profanity of any sort. We are blessed to have KLove and it would be wrong for anyone to take it away from us. We the listeners pay for it and we the listeners should always have it available to us.